As part of this giveaway, Home Care Assistance will be donating a weekend of respite care to 60 family caregivers across eight cities on June 4th, 2017: Boston, New York City, Los Angeles, Orange County, San Francisco, Dallas, Washington DC, and Miami.

Move for Minds is one of largest fundraising events for women's brain and Alzheimer's research, focusing on two key areas: why so many people are getting Alzheimer's and why the majority are women?

"I'm excited that Home Care Assistance locations nationwide have partnered with an organization like Move for Minds," said Manpreet Singh Dhalla, Owner/President of Home Care Assistance of Ft. Lauderdale. "We hope events like these will continue to raise the much-needed awareness and fundraising for Alzheimer's."
